SILVER JUBILEE OF ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH, STRATHMORE

A former Choir member at St. Michael's writes to tell us:— As Mr Lambert has been seriously ill, and at this time is quite unequal to the task of writing even a brief history of the Musical part of our Services during the past quarter of a century, this must be undertaken by another. The names of Mr and Mrs Lambert are so inextricably bound up with the fortunes of St. Michael's Parish, from its modest beginnings, down to the present time, that 25th Anniversary Celebrations would be incomplete without reference to them.

It may not generally be known that the first Anglican Services in Strathmore were held in Mr Lambert's Store on 1st Street, now used as a dwelling house, and there was also held the first Confirmation Service, 21st June 1908. Mention should also be made of one marriage service, conducted amongst Mr Lambert's pills and squills, the names of the bride and groom being forgotten for the moment, but they must have "lived happily ever after."

With a very small reed organ, and a few enthusiastic ladies and gentlemen, Mr Lambert began the work of organizing a Choir. And with such a leader, it is small wonder that from this time forward, St Michael's set a standard of Music so high that it was praised on many occasions by bishop Pinkham, visiting clergy, and numbers of church people who worshipped there in earlier days.

In 1914 the choir felt that Mr Lambert was worthy of a better instrument than the one then in use, and on his advice the present reed organ was purchased, countless pantry sales and other efforts being put forward to raise funds towards the cost. The old organ was duly presented to Mr Lambert at a public meeting, and thanks to his careful nursing, and its sound constitution, it has thrown off the asthma, and still survives at his home in Calgary.

From 1910, every festival of the church was duly honoured with special music, and some of the most beautiful services for fraternal societies ever held in Alberta, took place in St Michael's Church. Moreover the Christmas Carol Service, once begun, has since become traditional. That the path during these years has at times been thorney, none of his friends will deny. In summer's heat, and winter's cold the organ seat was until 1932 continually occupied by Mr Lambert on Sunday evenings, and his advancing years forced him to relinquish the post to others younger and willing.

The complete history of St Michael's talented first organist and Choirmaster may be fittingly summed up in the words of Holy Scripture, "Other men laboured, and we have entered into their labours."

It would be difficult to enumerate the amount of musical talent which numerous operators have displayed in handling St Michael's Church Organ, either in substituting for Mr Lambert, or since his resignation. Our present organist is Miss Violet Hyde, L.A.B., and our Choirmaster, one of the charter members of St Michael's, Mr G. H. Patrick.

Of the Church Ornaments contained within the Chancel, the 25th Anniversary of the Dedication of which is to be celebrated by a visit from Mr. Sherman, Bishop of Calgary on the 24th of November, 1935, the Organ Light and Altar Desk were donations in recent years from St Michael's Guild; the Holy Table is a Memorial to the late Flying Officer Douglas French, R.A.F. who passed up on 12th September 1923; hangings for the Altar have been received from various sources and adapted for use by the Guild, others have been made by Guild members, the Altar Book was bought with funds of the Junior Branch of the Women's Auxiliary which grew up under Mrs H. Montgomery during the incumbency of her husband. She is going to send us flowers in his memory for our 25th.

The handsome brass Cross came from the St. Thomas Ward of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament in Toronto; the Communion Vessels from St. Barnabas W. A., Calgary; the Vases and small candlesticks are ours without any note as to whence they came; the tall candlesticks are a memorial to Douglas French from his wife; the Brass Alms Dish is inscribed:— "Presented by the Sisters of Bethany, of St. Paul's Church, Indianapolis, U. S. A."

The new lighting system for the Chancel was installed by Cecil Lambert, a son of our first Organist and Churchwarden, the cost being defrayed by funds received for the purpose from the Dominion Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada. These also enabled us to redecorate the interior of the building, and widen the Vestibule Doors during this Silver Jubilee year 1935.

The Rev. W. H. Morgan, Rector of St. Michael's, Calgary, and Rural Dean, has promised to let the Rev. T. B. Winter have the stone font which that Church received from the Pro-Cathedral Church of the Redeemer in Calgary several years since, as soon as the font now on order is received. This will be a welcome addition to the Ornaments of the Church of St. Michael in Strathmore.

WEDDINGS

WEYERS — COCKX

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Sacred Heart Church Tuesday morning when Mr Wm. J. Weyers and Miss Annie Cockx were united in marriage, Rev. Father Cosman officiating. The wedding music was played by Miss Jodie Bedlinger.

The bride chose for the occasion a very becoming gown of Goblin blue velvet with silver trimmings, and hat to match. With this she wore silver shoes and carried a bouquet of beautiful pale pink roses. The bridesmaid Miss Whittemore Claver was gowned in rose moire silk, her bouquet was of carnations in matching tones.

Mr Jack Weyers, the groom's brother was best man.

Following the ceremony the guests assembled at the home of Mayor and Mrs D. N. Gardiner where the wedding breakfast was served.

The guests numbering 27 included only the immediate relatives and closest neighbors and Rev. Father Cosman.

The long tables were most attractively adorned. A three tier wedding cake having central place, with beautiful pink and crimson roses, and tall cathedral candles in two silver vases placed at intervals. Following the delicious repast a toast to the bride was proposed by Mayor Gardiner in very gracious terms. This was responded to by the groom, and all drank to the health and happiness of the newly wedded couple.

Out of town guests were Mr and Mrs Volker, Miss Pescod and Mr O'Chair.

After a short honeymoon in the mountains Mr and Mrs Weyers will reside on the homestead near Strathmore.

RISDON — LARSON

St Michael's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday last at 2.30 p.m. when Alice Bertha Larson of Carseland became the bride of Walter Uttermore Risdon, son of Mr and Mrs W. Harold Risdon of Strathmore, Rev. T. B. Winter officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Mr E. Larson, looked very winsome in a gown of blue moire silk.

The wedding music was played by Mrs Freeman.

The groom was supported by his brother Eddie Risdon.

Following the ceremony the happy couple with their immediate friends returned to the home of Mr and Mrs W. H. Risdon where the wedding dinner was served.

Later in the evening the young couple left for their new home amidst the best wishes of all their friends.

The day was the 30th anniversary of the marriage of the grooms parents and kind wishes for many more anniversaries were expressed to both wedded couples.

UNITED CHURCH ANNUAL SUPPER

A delicious and bountiful dinner served at tables adorned with vases of shaggy Sunset Mums was served to a large number of guests, the tables being repeatedly filled at the annual fowl supper of United Church Thursday evening last. The supper was arranged and served by the various members of the Ladies Aid, assisted by a number of young girls as servitors.

The Concert following was most interesting. The opening numbers, selections by the Gilbert orchestra, was a very pleasing innovation, this being the first time this musical family has played in Strathmore.

Solos by Leslie Hand, Mrs Schulte, and Mr Patrick, though all different were equally well received, as was the piano duet by Misses Garrett and Polk. A brief address by Rev. Brundage expressing his pleasure in meeting former friends was warmly received.

The Play "Pink Lemonade" given under the direction of Mrs Neis White proved a very amusing skit. The actors Hazel Short, Eddie Gilbert, Andrew Garrett and Bobby Brown carrying through their respective parts vry realistically. The moral we might point out would show that jealousy for the once proved a blessin disguise in inclining the fleeing wife to return with her husband and so not uproot the happiness of two homes. The stage with its special lighting was the work of Andrew Garrett and Eddie Gilbert.

Rev. Gilbert made a pleasing Chairman and thanked all for their assistance both in the dinner and the programme.

SEED GRAIN

Edmonton— In an effort to lay in a supply of seed oats and barley for the 1936 crop, the provincial government is making extensive purchases of seed. Hon. W. N. Chant, Minister of Agriculture, declared on Tuesday.

The Minister declared that seed oats are scarce and germination on samples sent to the Dominion Seed Branch at Calgary, is low, except in seed from some areas.

"We are buying seed and are in the market for more," he declared.

"This seed is being stored in both country elevators and the government terminal elevators. Up to the present we have been buying all this seed that was offered. We are trying to get the seed on hand for delivery in February and March, which are the best months to get the supplies. We are buying barley as well as wheat."

The seed wheat situation is not acute, as there is a good quality of seed to meet demands.

"Noise has been one of the great barriers to man's complete realization of his own abilities. It has broken into the most sacred of his sanctuaries — the recesses of constructive thought, its abortive effects upon intelligent thinking, and its power to disturb and even wreck human effort have been great deterrents of progress. $500,000,000 a year is but a conservative estimate of the annual cost of lost efficiency in business and industry alone as a result of noise."

"I am a part of all that I have met; Yet all experience is an arch where thru
Gleams that untravell'd world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move."
(Tennyson)

"And so the mature man would take the world as it comes, and within himself remain quite unperturbed. When he acted, he would know that he was only testing an hypothesis, and if he failed, he would know he had made a mistake. He would be quite prepared for the discovery that he might make mistakes, for his intelligence would be disentangled from his hopes. The failure of his experiment could not, therefore, involve the failure of his life. For the aspect of life which implicated his soul would be his understanding of life, and, to the understanding, defeat is no less interesting than victory. It would be no effort, therefore, for him to be tolerant, and no annoyance to be skeptical. He would face pain with fortitude, for he would have put it away from the inner chamber of his soul. Fear would not haunt him, for he would be without compulsion to seize anything and without anxiety as to its fate. He would be strong, not with strength of hard resolves, but because he was free of that tension which vain expectations beget. Would his life be uninteresting because he was disinterested? He would have the whole universe, rather than the prison of his own hopes and fears for his habitation, and in imagination all possible forms of being. How would that be dull unless he brought the dullness with him? He might dwell with all beauty and all knowledge, and they are inexhaustible. Would he then, dream idle dreams? Only if he chose to. For he might be quite simply about the business of the world, a good deal more effectively perhaps than the worldling, in that he did not place an absolute value upon it, and deceive himself. Would he be hopeful? Not if to be hopeful was to expect the world to submit rather soon to his vanity. Would he be hopeless? Hope is an expectation of favors to come, and he would take his delights here and now. Since nothing gnawed at his vitals, neither doubt nor ambition, nor frustration, nor fear, he would move easily through life. And so whether he saw the thing as comedy, or high tragedy, or plain farce, he would affirm that it is what it is, and that the wise man can enjoy it.
(From "A Preface to Morals" by Walter Lippmann).

NIGHTINGALE

It is hard to express the sorrow that came to this community when it became known that Mr Slonaker had become the victim of a tragedy. He came to this neighborhood about 20 years ago and had been a real citizen in every sense of the word. For many years he was chairman of Valley Garden School Board and he also served as president of the local U F A. He was a kindly gentleman and gave his friendship generously. All children loved to see him come along as he had a cheerful greeting for them. It seems typical of his life that he lost it while helping a fellow man in trouble. The deep sympathy of all the district goes to his family and relatives in their great bereavement.

NAMAKA

Mrs Wheeler, Sr and Loy accompanied by Mrs J McBean left on Wednesday the 20th and will motor to Illinois where they will visit relatives and will not return until some time during the month of January.

Miss Fay Watts was the holder of the lucky ticket in the Montreal-Toronto sweep stake tickets.

Mr and Mrs Fayerdi left during the week for points north of Edmonton where they will visit with friends and will remain for the winter months.

Service was held Sunday with quite a good attendance. A committee was appointed to enquire into the possibility of securing warmer quarters for holding services.

We are glad to report Arthur Anderson's condition much improved and we are hoping for a complete recovery.

HUMOR

An Englishman on a visit to the West decided to go horseback riding. The hostler who attended him asked: Do you prefer an English saddle or a Western?

What's the difference? was the reply.

The Western saddle has a horn, said the attendant.

I don't think I'll need the horn, said the Englishman. I don't intend to ride in heavy traffic.

upon it, and deceive him. Would he be hopeful? Not if to be hopeful was to expect the world to submit rather soon to his vanity. Would he be hopeless? Hope is an expectation of favors to come, and he would take his delights here and now. Since nothing gnawed at his vitals, neither doubt nor ambition, nor frustration, nor fear, he would move easily through life. And so whether he saw the thing as comedy, or high tragedy, or plain farce, he would affirm that it is what it is, and that the wise man can enjoy it.
